JUSTICE DINESH MEHTA

Order

21/03/2022

1. Mr. Sharma, learned counsel for the petitioner, submits that the petitioner is prepared to keep the respondent-wife with him and there is no matrimonial discord between the petitioner and the respondent, yet she is not coming forward because of unwarranted interference of her brother.
2. It is to be noted that the Court had referred the matter to the Mediation Cell. The report of the learned Mediator shows that neither the respondent nor her brother had turned up for mediation.

3. This Court is of the prima-facie view that the assertion made by the petitioner is correct and the respondent is not entitled for the maintenance.

4. List these cases on 25.04.2022, on which date the respondent-wife shall remain present before this Court.

5. Till then, effect and operation of the order dated 25.02.2021 shall remain stayed.
